

Goldfine Tells of Frequent White House Visits

Refuses Again To Answer Questions

Summoned To Afternoon Closed Session

WASHINGTON — (UPI) — Bernard Goldfine said today that he had visited the White House a number of times in this administration and once lunched with White House executives, including President Eisenhower.

The Russian-born textile tycoon told newsmen of his White House visits after his sixth round of testimony before a House subcommittee investigating whether his firms got favored treatment from federal agencies because of his friendship with Presidential Assistant Sherman Adams.

GOLDFINE, HOLDING fast to his earlier refusal to answer certain questions about his complicated financial dealings, asked the subcommittee to halt its hearings pending a ruling by a federal court on whether the questions were pertinent. The subcommittee rejected this request.

Members have threatened to cite Goldfine on contempt charges if he does not answer the questions.

CHAIRMAN OREN Harris (D-Ark.) summoned Goldfine to an afternoon closed session of the subcommittee. One member said the closed session would deal with matters more sensational than any brought out thus far in public testimony.

Goldfine said he had not changed his mind about the 22 questions he refused to answer earlier, despite the subcommittee's threat to cite him for contempt of Congress.

DISCUSSION OF his White House visits developed as the hearings ended and Goldfine, to the annoyance of his Boston attorney, Samuel P. Sears, was cornered by reporters.

He was asked first about whether he had visited former President Truman in the White House.

"I'm not quite sure, but I think I did," he replied.

AS FOR VISITS during the Eisenhower administration, Goldfine said he had been to the White House several times to see Adams. Asked if this amounted to a number of visits, he said it did, but he had not kept count.

There has been a dispute in testimony before the subcommittee and in statements by the White House, itself, as to the relationship between Goldfine and the President.

IN HIS TALK WITH reporters, Goldfine recalled that on one visit to the White House, Adams invited him to lunch and they ate with "a group of White House executives."

The men sat in groups at small tables, and Goldfine said Adams took him to the President's table nearby "to say hello."

Tone-Deaf Thief Steals Records

Palm Springs police are today keeping their ears tuned to a music lover who now possesses what might be the city's largest record library of unpopular music.

Police reported that 400 to 500 records were taken from the library of Radio Station KPAL within the last few days.

But station officials noted that the thief helped himself to records which "were not worth playing" and had been boxed for giveaway.

Final Hearing Held Today On Translator

FCC Examiner Expected to Give Decision by Nov. 1

A Federal Communications Commission examiner wound up hearings in Washington today on the applications of Palm Springs Translators Station Inc. to continue operating two television translator stations here.

Examiner Annie Neal Hunting told a reporter "the record is now closed" in this proceeding.

FCC OFFICIALS said they expected Examiner Hunting to make her initial decision by about Nov. 1.

Palm Springs Translators and Palm Springs Community Television Corp., an intervenor in the case, were given until Sept. 26 to file their conclusions and recommendations with the examiner.

At today's hearings, sworn statements taken from witnesses in California were offered by Palm Springs Community Television and were accepted into the record.

THE HEARINGS were held to determine whether there had been any intent on the part of Palm Springs Translators to disregard specifications of its construction permits. The FCC ordered the hearings after original grants of the permits without a hearing were challenged by the rival community concern, which relays programs by cable.

Examiner Hunting's opinion will be subject to approval by the full commission.

Death of King Feisal Reported

WASHINGTON — (UPI) — A foreign diplomatic source said today he has received a report that King Feisal of Iraq was killed by a mob in Baghdad Monday. Other diplomatic sources could not confirm the report.

The State Department said it had conflicting and unconfirmed reports.

The source of the Feisal death report said the revolutionary government in Baghdad has admitted privately that the King is dead, but has made no public announcement.

There has been no official word about the fate of the King.

WIND-WHIPPED FLAMES ranged across a wide area of the city dump yesterday until city firefighters bulldozed the fire under control. Plumes of thick, black smoke towered high above the dump throughout the afternoon blaze, which was apparently caused by "hot ashes," fire officials said. This major portion of the blaze was covered by tons of sand and refuse shoved into place by a bulldozer. Firemen used high pressure hoses and shovels to bring other scattered areas under control. Flames again broke out later last night when newspapers were apparently ignited by smoldering embers. The blazing papers were blown against the dump fence, but standby firecrews prevented the spread of sparks or flames to a nearby housing development. Desert Sun Photo.

Desert Hospital Care Recognized By $500 Donation

Desert Hospital this week received a contribution of $500 from the Humane Foundation, which has its headquarters in San Francisco, and which makes contributions to hospitals and organizations which are doing an excellent job in their field.

The contribution was a result of Frank C. Nelson, president of Humane Foundation, receiving treatment at Desert Hospital last winter. At the time he called Hospital Administrator Robert Henwood to his room, and commended him on the excellent care and treatment he had received.

The Humane Foundation is incorporated for charitable and humane purposes. The donation has been placed in the hospital's equipment fund.

Nelson also is a member of the board of directors of Herrick Hospital in Berkeley.

Fishing, Finances Combined in Talks

PANAMA CITY — (UPI) — Dr. Milton S. Eisenhower and President Ernesto de la Guardia of Panama mixed fishing and finances on Panama Bay today.

CITY COUNCIL FINDS WATERING OF PLANTS COSTLY

City Manager R. W. Peterson told the City Council that he had received the first water bill for the South Riverside Drive oleanders—a bill that amounted to $1,500.

But Peterson, who said he immediately investigated the reason for the extremely high billing, explained that it was attributed to an accidental "overwatering" of the month-old plants.

The water company, Peterson said, accepted $900 as payment in full.

Peterson said that maintenance men fearing that the plants were wilting from the heat required more water, but council members and Peterson were not appalled by the resultant flood.

The city manager, who noted that "it won't happen again," said the monthly bills should hereafter range around $50, being slightly higher during the summer months.

Illinois City Battles Worst Flood in History After Blast

STREATOR, Ill. — (UPI) — This city of 17,000 battled its worst flood in history today in the wake of fire and explosion that destroyed a four-story building, killing at least five persons and injuring 10.

Residents braced for even greater flood damage as authorities warned two giant crests was surging down the Vermillion River toward the city.

TORRENTIAL RAINS ranging up to six inches Monday triggered the floodwaters which threatened to knock out the city's water and sewage disposal plants. About 300 persons were evacuated from their flooded homes.

The floods also were blamed for a sewer gas explosion and

National Guard Rifle Range Plans Disclosed

Plans for creation of a National Guard rifle range on public land near Indio by the Army were announced today by Sen. Thomas H. Kuchel.

Senator Kuchel, in a telegram to The Desert Sun, reported that the Army will file a request seeking 640 acres of public land, five miles northeast of Indio, for use as a rifle range.

Assistant Secretary of the Army Dewey Short has approved a recommendation from the deputy chief of staff for logistics that the land be withdrawn from the public domain, Kuchel said.

The land involved was identified as Section 6, Township 5, South Range 8, San Bernardino Meridian.

WOMAN CITED AFTER PIGGY-BACK ACCIDENT

A 22-year-old Beaumont woman was cited by police today after a "piggy-back" accident that involved three cars and demolished a small cargo trailer. No one was injured, officers said.

Police charged Sandra Lee Allen was "following too close" for safety prior to the accident that occurred in the 1800 block of North Palm Canyon Drive at noon Saturday.

Officers reported that Miss Allen's car vaulted a small, two-wheel trailer and landed piggy-back atop of a car driven by Robert E. Alden, 49.

Pilot Lands on Busy Freeway In San Diego

SAN DIEGO — (UPI) — A Navy pilot landed in the middle of a busy freeway Monday night after ejecting from his disabled jet fighter which circled over the city and crashed, narrowly missing scores of homes.

Lt. Jon Parrish, 26, La Jolla, suffered minor injuries when he landed on traffic-jammed Cabrillo Freeway after ejecting from his plane at 10,000 feet.

WITNESSES SAID he landed in the only lane of the freeway that was clear at the time. A motorist saw Parrish coming down and stopped traffic.

Parrish's plane, a F11 Tiger jet out of Miramar Naval Air station, circled over the city, skimmed low over roofs of houses and slammed into a canyon wall in the exclusive Clairemont district.

Family Routed This Morning

An early-morning fire today routed a Palm Springs family from its home.

A flaming davenport, apparently ignited by a cigarette, sent the family of Pat O'Dea from their home at 1447 Rodeo Drive, fire officials reported.

O'Dea told firemen that he was awakened at about 5:45 a.m. when smoke from the davenport filled the house. His wife and two children were ushered from the house as flames spread to drapes and carpeting in the living room.

Fire fighters arrived on the scene as O'Dea and a neighbor battled the blaze. The fire was confined to the interior of the house, causing about $2,500 damage, fire officials said.

PERFECT SAFETY RECORD BRINGS REFUND OF $1,167

Desert Hospital has received a refund of $1,167.18, or 46 per cent of the total amount paid in, from the State Compensation Insurance Fund, Hospital Administrator Robert Henwood announced today.

The refund was due to the hospital having a perfect safety record during the fiscal year.

With the refund came a letter of commendation to all officials and employees of Desert Hospital.

Russia Asks UN To Order U.S. Out

LONDON (UPI) — The United States intervened by force of arms today in the swiftly spreading mid-eastern crisis.

More than 5,000 battle-ready U. S. Marines, acting on direct orders from President Eisenhower, landed at Beirut, Lebanon, to protect American lives and prevent that little revolt-torn nation from suffering the same fate that befell Iraq and "martyred" members of its government.

THE U. S. ACTION was taken with the "full support" of Britain.

The Marines streamed ashore from the U. S. 6th Fleet, the world's most powerful, under cover of war planes from the U. S. Carrier Essex.

The President's action was taken at the direct request of Lebanese President Camille Chamoun to protect Lebanon against "indirect aggression."

IT WAS THE FIRST landing of U. S. troops in such force and circumstances since the Korean War and it came amid new war fears unprecedented since Korea and the dying days of the war in Indo-China.

First official Russian reaction came at an emergency session of the U. N. Security Council. Soviet Ambassador Arkady A. Sobolev accused the U. S. of "aggression" against the Arab world and asked the council to order the American forces to get out immediately.

AS THE U. S. MARINES poured ashore on one side of the world, the U. S. also placed its Atlantic Fleet on four-hour alert, directed to prepare for "such duties as may be required." All leaves were cancelled.

It was touched off by Monday's surprise revolt in Iraq which toppled the government of 23-year-old King Feisal and faced the western world with the danger of a conflagration which could spread to Jordan and Lebanon, eventually engulfing Israel and the whole of the Middle East.

EISENHOWER SAID the U. S. forces had "not been sent as any act of war" but that they would demonstrate to the world this nation's concern "for the independence and integrity of Lebanon, which we deem vital to the national interest and world peace."

The President's action preceded the U. S. Security Council with an accomplished fact and prevented any possible Russian delaying action. The U. S. action was legal.

Subdivision Lines

City Reaffirms Policy on Sewers

City Council members yesterday reaffirmed their policy on subdivision sewer lines, calling on tract developers to plant lines for future tie-in with proposed mains.

The council ordered Planning Director Hy Ranes to issue letters to subdividers concerned, notifying the builders that they must include sewer lines in their subdivision plans.

THIS ACTION followed heavy discussion on the waiver of sewer requirements granted two developers by a four-to-three council vote last Wednesday.

Wednesday's departure from the established sewer policy followed requests by developers George Alexander and Jerry Nathanson that they be granted waivers because their preliminary plans were submitted long before the sewer policy was adopted.

AT THEIR REGULAR, inform-both by treaty and under the U.N. recognition that an emergency existed.

The Security Council was summoned into session today at U.S. request.

A MESSAGE FROM the rebel Iraq regime today demanded that the meeting be delayed until a new Iraqi delegate could arrive to replace Iraqi Ambassador Abdul Majid Abbass. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld rejected the request.

U. S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge informed the council of the troop landings and said the forces would be withdrawn "as soon as the United Nations can take over."

Lodge also informed the council that veteran U.N. diplomat Fadhil Al-Jamali was murdered in the Iraqi insurrection and his body dragged through the streets of Baghdad.

Two Americans Reported Killed By Mob in Iraq

WASHINGTON — (UPI) — The State Department said today it has received unconfirmed reports that two American businessmen were killed Monday by a mob in Iraq.

Department spokesman Lincoln White said a third American was attacked but managed to escape, according to the reports.

White said the killings took place in front of the Baghdad hotel from which a group of 10 westerners, including the three Americans, had been taken by Iraq officials.

White declined to give the names of the two American businessmen reported killed or the third American who escaped because the reports are unconfirmed.

al luncheon meeting yesterday, council members felt they acted correctly in granting the waivers, but indicated they may have acted somewhat "hastily."

Some council members felt they should, in the future, withhold action pending a two-week study with planning commissioners to establish clear whether applicants for waivers were justified.

Both subdividers will be informed by mail that they must adhere to the order, although neither builder had indicated opposition to the policy.

Dissenting developers have the right of appeal to the City Council, it was pointed out.

Burke Attends State Meeting Of Youth Synod

Don Burke, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Mitchell, 2222 Park Drive, attended the Twentieth Stated Meeting of the Presbyterian Youth Synod last week at Occidental College, Los Angeles.

A member of the Palm Springs Community Church, he was selected as an outgrowth of leadership in the local church, and by virtue of his election to the office of witness program area director of the Riverside Youth Synod.

He was one of about 200 high school and college students in California, Nevada and Utah to be chosen as a delegate.

Featured speaker was Dr. Eugene Carson Blake, past president of the National Council of Churches of Christ and Stated Clerk of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, U.S.A.

Area York Rite Masons Invited To Ceremonies

Village area York Rite Masons were today invited to participate in York Rite Centennial ceremonies scheduled for July 19 on Mount Rubidoux in Riverside.

The Riverside Centennial observance starts with conferring of Mark Master outdoor degrees in conjunction with a state series of out-of-door degrees for all York Rite bodies.

THE DEGREE WILL be preceded by a dinner at the Masonic Temple in Riverside, from 5 to 6:30 p.m. Reservations must be made with James Freeman, High Priest of the Riverside Chapter, Royal Arch Masons, no later than July 17.

Masons not planning to attend the dinner are asked to arrive at the temple by 6:30 p.m. for transportation to the Mount Rubidoux summit.

Archie Long, of Palm Springs, will participate in the cast for degree.

MASONIC DIGNITARIES scheduled to attend the ceremony include Ex-Companion William C. Leason, Grand High Priest of the Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons of California and his suite of past and present grand chapter officers.

Others are Most Illustrious Master Robert W. Cottle, Grand Master of the Grand Council of Royal and Select Masters of California, and his suite; Sir Knight Robert N. Rewick, Eminent Grand Commander of the Grand Commandery Knights Templar of California, and his suite, and officers and members of the Southern California York Rites subordinate bodies, Masonic officials reported.

Missile Center Workers Start Wildcat Strike

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (UPI) — Maintenance workers at the Air Force Missile Test Center refused to report to their jobs early today in a wildcat strike that threatened to cripple rocket testing operations.

A spokesman for the Transport Workers Union of America said the strike could "seriously affect the work" at the cape. But he denied that the union ordered the strike.

E. M. MITCHELL of Miami, TWU representative for the Brevard County area, said the workers voted Monday night to "take matters into their own hands" because of "unsafe working conditions and the company's failure to live up to a contract agreement."

Pan American Airways, which has a contract with the Air Force to maintain and operate the test center, would neither confirm nor deny that there was a walkout, and the Air Force declined to comment.

"I don't think it would interrupt operations, because we have an ample number of supervisory people," a PAA spokesman said.

Durable Ribs Save Grocer

LOS ANGELES — (UPI) — One of William M. Shrum's durable ribs and a long chance of fate were credited today with saving the 74-year-old grocer from possible death.

Shrum bailed Monday when a bandit held a .32-caliber revolver on him and demanded the money in the cash register of the small store. The gunman fired, hitting Shrum on the right side of the chest.

At Central Receiving Hospital, doctors found the bullet had hit one of Shrum's ribs and was deflected into the victim's side. After treatment for a superficial flesh wound, Shrum was transferred to California Hospital. His condition was reported as "not serious."

Trujillo's Boat Now Back To Normal, 'Zsa Zsa' Gone

SAN PEDRO — (UPI) — Gen. Rafael Trujillo's personal "man-of-war," the Angelita, was its glitziest self today after king-sized letters spelling "Zsa Zsa" were removed from the hull.

Crewmen aboard the four-masted, 350-foot yacht were sent over the side Monday to paint out the name of Trujillo's actress friend which someone with a spray gun had crudely lettered on the vessel.

THE NAME APPARENTLY was painted Sunday night or early Monday morning by someone in a small boat which slipped under the jutting stern of the vessel.

Ferry riders first saw the name early in the morning, but it was nearly noon before the Angelita's crew became aware of the "kick me" sign.

Photographers rode out in a Los Angeles Harbor Department boat to take pictures of the name. The action drew a protest from officers aboard the Dominican Republic vessel.

THE ANGELITA has floated at berth 86 almost all the time since shortly after Trujillo's arrival.

Hot Dog

CHICAGO — (UPI) — The hot dog season is upon us. The American Meat Institute estimates that an average of over 25 million frankfurters a day will be eaten this summer. This amounts to a stomach-stretching total of 2½ billion sausages between now and Labor Day. Baseball fans, followed closely by backyard cooks, lead the hot dog parade.

Summer Scoops Reported At Welwood Murray Library

By GERRY VANEK
It seems like only yesterday that our article about the summer book club for young people appeared in The Desert Sun. Actually, it was printed the first week in June, but the membership has reached 250 already!

Some of the "World Travelers" are picking out their luggage stickers geographically, and following their routes around our big, round globe of the world. Others are choosing their countries alphabetically, and the rest just land where the spirit moves them!

OUR TRANSPORTATION stickers (pictures of planes, trains, and buses) are moving fast, too! And, remember, there's still time to climb aboard and start your trip around the world!

There are two special displays of fascinating books about foreign countries: the one for younger travelers is next to the desk, and the other (for the older group) is behind the desk above the display posters. If there's some country that particularly intrigues you, please ask to see our club booklist. In it you will find the various countries (and the books we have concerning them) listed alphabetically.

ALSO IN KEEPING with the theme of "World Travelers" is a wonderful collection of ship models made by Ronnie Stuart. Their authenticity is amazing, and there's always a crowd of boys (yes, and girls, too!) looking into the glass display case above the encyclopedias where they are kept. Ronnie has promised to let us show his airplane models later, so keep an eye out for those, too.

As part of the summer recreation program in the schools (which is under the direction of Howard Haddock), a branch of the children's library has been established in the craft room at Cielo Vista. You may browse, read, and take out books there Tuesdays through Fridays.

DURING THE SUMMER season the Welwood Murray Memorial Library will be closed on Saturdays and Sundays. The hours in the children's room are 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Friday. The adult division is open from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m., Monday through Thursday, and from 10 a.m. 'til 5 p.m. on Friday.

If you should find yourself on the front steps of the library with your arms full of books when we are closed, just slide them into the book drop at the right of the entrance.

VACATION LOANS on books not in the seven-day category, or those borrowed from other libraries, are now in effect in both departments.

In the good old summertime, living in Palm Springs is easy... And what better way is there to relax than by curling up with a good book? Now is the ideal time to catch up on all those stories you were too busy to read during the hectic winter months. And you'll be surprised at how many of the season's best sellers have moved right off the reserve lists and onto the shelves!

Oil was first discovered in the United States near Cuba, N. Y., in 1627. A Franciscan missionary was led to the site by Seneca Indians, who used the crude petroleum that bubbled up in a spring for medicine and as a paint base.

Rapid Local Growth Shown By Tax Valuation Gains

For some years the assessors in cities and counties in California have by and large followed a general policy of appraising real property for purposes of taxation on a basis of fifty per cent or less of cost of construction or replacement.

While many people are vaguely aware of this practice, it is none the less doubly enlightening to point it out and apply the results to the recent tax valuation reports announced for the City of Palm Springs and the Unified School District.

Figures released from tax sources show valuation of real property within the city limits has risen to a new high approaching $60,000,000.

Recognizing that tax assessors appraise on the fifty per cent base, it is therefore evident that the current value of taxable properties in Palm Springs approximates a realistic and outstanding total of an impressive actual worth of $120,000,000.

The present real value of all properties in the school district, which includes that within the City boundaries, is even more markedly imposing.

Preliminary tax evaluations for the Palm Springs Unified School District range upwards of $90,000,000 which when compensated for by the tax assessment policy of appraising and allowing for later additions of utilities, etc., project a final actual worth in excess of $200,000,000.

In this connection it is gratifying to note that the district gain of more than $16,000,000 in assessment value, or $32,000,000 actual value in a single year, is of such proportions as to pay for the school expansion program now under way without an increase in taxes as was promised to voters when the issues were submitted at the polls.

As shown by the monthly building permits, and as is also easily visible to anyone in surveying the area, both Palm Springs and environs are experiencing a general, sound and continuously healthy growth in every direction.

Proof of this is eminently reflected in the highly pleasing rise in total property valuations which already are well on the way to new records.

A new Destiny Manifest?

WASHINGTON, D. C. — It happens I was in El Paso, Texas, when Alaska statehood passed the Senate. The occasion was signified by the wild whoop of a previously - dignified housewife who read the news in the headlines. Hearing that I was a reporter, she instantly extended an invitation to visit her and her husband in Anchorage where, she said, there were unwritten news stories and personalities everywhere you looked.

"In Alaska," she rattled along in an engaging burst of vim and local pride, "people don't point you the way when you ask directions. They take you where you want to go. We're not ready for statehood. There's an awful lot to do. Alaskans will shock Washington when they start to come there in numbers. We have many leaders who are 'dem' and 'dore' guys. But — oh, I'm proud — proud."

STATISTICS DON'T mean a thing in the presence of this kind of high spirits. The Alaskan population of 213,000 persons on 586,000 square miles is not measurable by head - counting. If Alaskans are people with imagination, enthusiasm and rugged Americanism, as there is every reason to believe, they are worth many times these numbers to the U.S.A.

Further, it seems more than probable that the psychological results of Alaskan admission will be greater than the material ones. Some of us who opposed the statehood bill do not believe that the foreseen disadvantages as to distance, lack of a taxable basis and all the rest will now vanish.

NOR DOES IT seem that the claims of the statehood proponents are any more realistic than before the bill was passed. But the State of Alaska brings some things of high value across the threshold of the Federal Union. First among them, of course is the exuberance of a frontier people, a tonic very much needed in the tired blood that sometimes seems to meander through our creaking system.

THEN, THERE IS the germ expansionism which comes in with this new State. There are some far-fetched arguments to show that the Pacific coast territories were also non-contiguous when they entered the Union. Yes, but nothing except American-held land separated the new and old States in the mid-9th century.

Today, it is an entirely new situation when 2,000 miles of British Commonwealth sovereignty separates the American North-west from this newcomer. It is readily predictable that in a few years we will be hearing slogans to "Close the Gap!"

THE ALASKAN admission creates another unprecedented situation in pushing our State borders within 55 miles of the Soviet Union. It is very well to say that this situation existed for all practical purposes while Alaska was only a territory, but this is hardly true. Had Alaska chosen commonwealth status (as is still vaguely possible), there was always a chance that she might prefer to become a Canadian province or even an independent country some day.

Statehood is irrevocable. Statehood was the cause of war with Mexico. It was very nearly the cause of war with Canada. Two of the original States, Maryland and Virginia, open up a shooting war each year when the oyster fleets meet in borderland waters. Make no mistake. It peppers the blood to be a sovereign American State.

ALASKAN ADMISSION removes the chief obstacle before

Hawaiian statehood. If this territory becomes the 50th State, then we must make the Northern Pacific an American "lake." With a non-contiguous State and an off-shore State, there will be no sensible argument against accepting any territory of our breed of men into the Union — we will become, as Oklahoma Senator Mike Monroney said in debate, the "Associated" States of America.

Well, our statesmen a century ago used to talk of "manifest destiny," and maybe they weren't so wrong, after all. There are tides of history which flow very strongly without any consent on the part of man. The unblinking fact is that the USA and the USSR are in a struggle for the world. Our side has been getting the worst of it, first and last, for one very evident reason — the USSR is on the aggressive; we have been on the defensive. Russia has acted; we have counteracted.

SO, THE QUESTION which Alaskan statehood raises in this observer's mind is: Does it signal a new expansionist era for the USA? This country got its start from a huddle of maritime colonists on the Atlantic beach. The mountains and plains, the British and French and Spanish and Indians did not stop us short of the Pacific coast.

Good sense and bad experience did not stop us from plunging off into European and Asian wars. For all anybody can say, the Alaskan statehood and other statehoods in prospect are manifestations of an imperial march by our democratic republic to take over the earth.

Is it good? Is it bad? Who knows? But, at least, it may be the means whereby we seize the aggressive from our rival. It could mean that we stop losing and start winning for a welcome change.

Dear Abby...

DEAR ABBY: My husband used to tell me that he had to sleep in another room because my snoring kept him awake at night. Like a fool I believed him until a friend of mine told me that she saw my husband out one night in a little town near here, folk-dancing until two o'clock in the morning. I stayed up four nights and nothing happened, but on Friday night after he went to bed I heard him take the screen off, and caught him climbing out the window, all dressed up. We had a big fight about this, but he won't admit anything. How can I get him to confess?

CAUGHT HIM

DEAR CAUGHT HIM: What is there to confess? If he is so crazy about folk dancing—learn how, and go with him. P. S. Get him back in your bedroom, too.

DEAR ABBY: Do you suppose there is something the matter with me? I've got two fellows who want to marry me, but I don't care for either of them. My mother is having a fit. She says, "Name me one thing that is wrong with either of them!" And, Abby, I can't name one thing wrong with either of them but I don't want to marry them. I am 22 years old, have a good job and am not worried about being an old maid, but my mother is driving me crazy. Please tell me what to do?

NOT READY.

DEAR NOT: Your mother had the privilege of picking out ONE husband in the family—hers. Tell her you'd like the same privilege and not to rush you.

DEAR ABBY: If people complain about eating around dogs they should have had my experience at a counter in a snack-fountain yesterday. A lady came in and sat beside me on the fountain stool and ordered a glass of milk. She had a bag of fig bars in a sack, so she ate them with the milk. The seeds must have got under her plates because she took them out (uppers and lowers) and proceeded to wash her plates in her glass of drinking water. Did you, Dear Abby, ever hear of a dog taking out his store teeth and washing them in a glass of water? Some people are disgusting!

DEAR MISS VAN BUREN: Evidently you haven't any children because you state in your column that children should never be slapped. That's the trouble with our educational system today. The teachers don't have the authority to slap a child, so the kids fool around in the classroom, show disrespect and the teachers can't do a thing about it. I believe if teachers were given permission to give the child a good sharp slap when he needs it we could solve our juvenile delinquency problem in a year.

DISGUSTED

DEAR DISGUSTED: You're wrong. I have a teen-aged son and a teen-aged daughter. A "good sharp slap" administered in the presence of others breeds resentment and bitterness. The juvenile courts are loaded with children who have learned "nothing from being slapped around, except how to get even."

SURE, IT'S HOT. (Or was). The guy on the radio just said that there was a break in the heat wave.) But if it set a record in Los Angeles, like the man said, it did here, too.

If it's unusual there, it's 'unusual' here.

But, anyway, I liked the story my friend told me about a friend who was driving through the desert en route home from a business trip to Phoenix.

THIS FRIEND said that in a community on the desert he saw a small church building alongside the road.

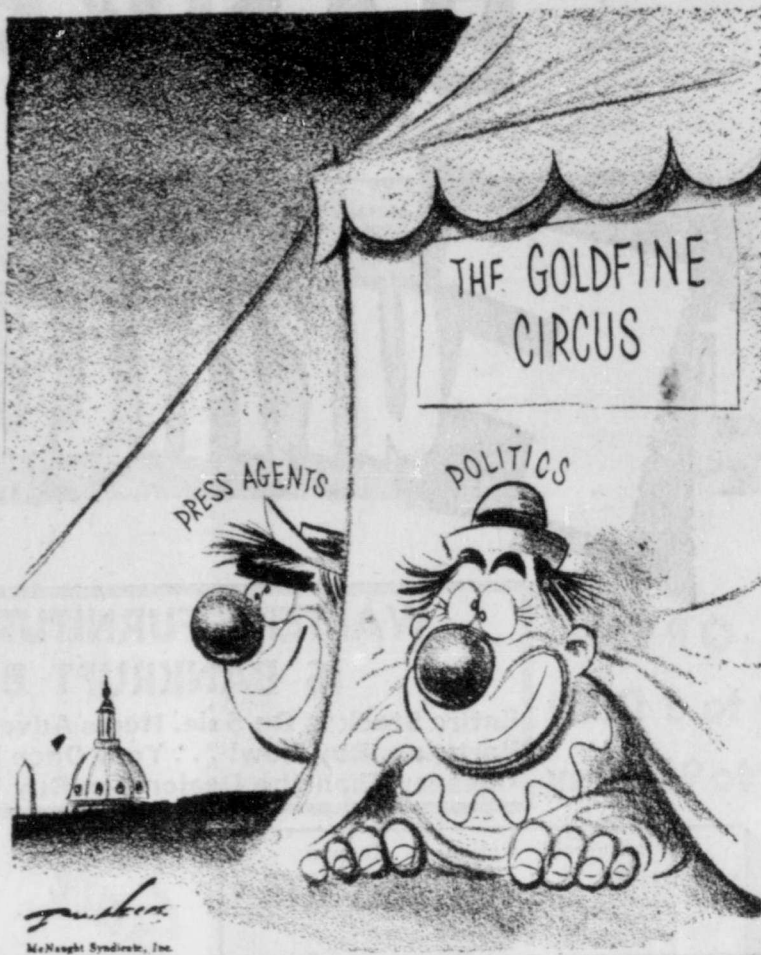

On the bulletin board outside, announcing the sermon for the next Sunday, he read this: "So you think it's hot HERE!"

SEE WHERE the United States sent up a test rocket, the kind they hope will propel a craft to the moon and that it had as passenger, a mouse.

Think of the possibilities for gagsters and cartoonists in that! They could have the Man in the Moon meet our craft with a welcoming committee but asking the passenger in a puzzled way: "Are you a man or a mouse?"

All right. I was just going to leave anyway.

No use to try
To dodge the heat,
It's ev'rywhere.
But here, at least,
We got it beat.
Conditioned air.

If, as is usually the case when I discuss the weather, there should be a decided change between the time this is written and it appears in print, do not scoff at the above.

Save it for August. There'll be more hot days, anyway warm days, before Fall.

IT'S THAT PART about conditioned air I want to emphasize.

More and more buildings and homes in the metropolitan area are installing air conditioning and refrigeration but too many are still leaving it up to nature. Denizens of these buildings just sit and swelter and talk about the weather.

Here we have done something about it.

PEOPLE WHO have it bad always gain some small comfort at the thought that someone else has it worse.

That's what irritates me. Like, for instance, attired in my city clothes, I went to call on a friend in a downtown Los Angeles office building last week. That was the day it was 95.

MOPPING HIS BROW with a soggy paper towel, my host looked at me with an irking patronizing air.

"Boy, I bet you are glad to be here instead of in Palm Springs," he said. "Must really be hot there."

I didn't have the heart to tell him, as he sat there with collar unbuttoned, necktie sagging, that right then I would like to be in The Desert Sun office in Palm Springs.

Where all you have to do is walk to the wall, flip a pair of switches and let the cool air circulate around you.

STAN DELAPLANE'S Postcard

A pair of quail walked up the road early this morning, chattering and picking up a little breakfast in the manzanita bushes alongside the dry creek.

There are two young quail with them — still yellow and spotted. Each year the quail start off with about eight small ones. They dwindle down to seven, six, five, four. The local cats have a satisfied look.

IN THE FALL, if we are lucky we have broiled quail.

If it were not for me and the local cats, the country would be so covered with quail you could hardly get around.

THIS IS A LAZY day in the sun. We have a new sprinkler. It does not go all around like most sprinklers. This sprinkler was designed by some genius who finally figured out most people have a house on one side of the garden.

This sprinkler sprays way OUT. Then it sprays way UP. But it does not spray AROUND and waste a lot of water on the wall of the house. It took years to figure that out. Longer than the atom bomb.

When the sprinkler sprinkles way OUT, my small son runs up to it. Then when it swings back and way UP, he runs like crazy. It is a game.

HAVING NOTHING better to do, I am researching an envelope full of old notes. I have a note that says: "Honolulu. Ladies room. Canlis."

That is a note that I researched the ladies' lounge at Canlis' Boller, an elegant restaurant on Kaimukou boulevard.

For a long time, the Royal Hawaiian has been bragging about its ladies' room which is all done up in pearls. They said it was the fanciest establishment in the world.

THE CANLIS PEOPLE decided to outdo them.

I remember auditioning this gorgeous powder room. But there was so much yacking about it, I shortened my notes. I simply cannot march into ladies' powder rooms in front of a restaurant full of people with any composure.

That is all my notes say. As I remember, they had a lot of Japanese screens on the wall. Anyway, it shows I get around.

NO DAY IS without excitement. While running away from the sprinkler, the boy has fallen. His lip is bleeding.

When my daughter was small and puncturing herself with can openers, I was breathless with anxiety.

A small boy does not give the same feeling. I just mop off the gore and stick on band-aids and take him out to watch the mail. A few scars are man's heritage. I have a beauty over my left eye. My cousin hit me with a dry cell battery. The year after that, I opened his eye with a tire wrench.

OUR SIAMESE CAT has been gone for six days. Just up and took it on the Arthur Duffy. Left no notes.

This cat is probably the dumbest cat I ever had. Fact is, we kept him for that reason. We figured nobody could love such a screwball. We lavished affection and Dr. Somebody's flea powder on him.

WE FED HIM the fat of the land. He was the only cat in the neighborhood who did not hunt quail. Quail could walk right in front of him. Never moved. He ate nothing unless we opened a can and spoon-fed him. Handsome but no talent.

It is my opinion that some neighbors are feeding this cat. He will stay as long as they bring it to him. One of these days they will find out what a scrounger he is and fling him out. Then he will come home.

YESTERDAY WAS Bastille Day. I built a small jail out of chairs and put the boy in it. I told him I would storm it later and free him. He put up an awful fuss and everybody came out and said: "Stop teasing that boy."

I was only trying to EDUCATE him about the French Revolution.

But do you think anybody will believe that?

EARL WILSON:

Cafe Singer Sings

NEW YORK — Kathryn Grayson has a couple million socked away and needs a job like Trujillo needs another girl.

She has this fortune for a simple reason. During her busiest years she bought $10,000 worth of U.S. bonds every week. I don't suppose $10,000 a week sounds like very much to all of you (out there in videoland) but all those $10,000s soon count up.

Different, hey? So although Kathryn retired last year, she got bored, and is now singing at the Latin Quarter — and when it comes time to start her engagement, she wondered what she should do.

"Something different," suggested her brother, Michael Grayson. "Like standing on my head and whistling 'Dixie,'" asked Kathryn, who's from Winston-Salem. "Oh, more different than that!" he said.

"Well, I couldn't sing in a shower, or in a bubble bath, or doing a striptease, because all that's very common nowadays," Kathryn said.

"What you've got to do is something very unusual!" her brother said.

"I'll tell you what I'll do—I'll sing!"

"For a nightclub singer, that would be a terrific novelty!" howled her brother. "How did you ever think of anything so unusual?"

"You know I've always been 'different,'" shrugged Kathryn, modestly. And that's what she's doing now at the Quarter—and after you get over the first shock of hearing a nightclub singer sing, you like it. It won't catch on permanently though; it's just one of those fads.

George Burns tells me Gracie Allen won't miss her TV audience because she never knew there was one. "She concentrated so much on her acting," George said, "that one day about a year and a half after we'd been on TV, she said, 'George, what's that red light doing on the camera?' I told her it'd always been there. She said, 'Well, I don't want it. It bothers me.'" I said, "It didn't bother you for a year and a half." Anyway, the red lights were taken off the cameras—so Gracie wouldn't be reminded she was on the air.

While this Ohio boy was on the Riviera recently, he met an Ohio girl who knows how to live and has the stuff it takes to do it with. Her name's Marcia Strahan and she's the daughter of the Toledo spark plug king; also the wife of Prince Youka Trobetzky, a handsome charmer who helped her build a $400,000 villa near Nice. After we'd had a drink with them on the edge of the Mediterranean, they got into a power boat and shot off across the water to have dinner on somebody's yacht.

You-Can't-Win Dept: I was hurrying to 21 to meet my B.W. for a cocktail. On 7th Av., I saw composer Irving Caesar emerging from a flower shop. "Come in—I want to buy a flower for your lepal," he said. "The custom should be revived. It makes people happy."

"What people?" I asked. "The florists," he said. And you wife'll be very flattered. I hurried to my date feeling very dressed up. The B.W. evidently thought so, too. She glared and demanded, "Just whom did you have a date with before you met me?"

THE MIDNIGHT EARL... Marilyn Monroe, her hair bleached a "pillowcase-white" for the film "Some Like It Hot," flew to H'wood... Rod Steiger'll make the Al Capone film bio—says he'll take out all "unnecessary" violence... Dancer Mitchell Reiner of "Bells Are Ringing" saw Gene Kelly off to L.A. Rita Hayworth, her two daughters and husband Jim will leave for Europe aboard the United States... Paul Tripp was asked to write a TV Christmas spectacular, with Burl Ives as Santa Claus... Pretty Jacqueline McKeever was a piano teacher in Catasauqua, Pa. till "Oh, Captain," her first B'way show.

MIKE CONNOLLY:

Gail Russell Given Second Chance

HOLLYWOOD — Gail Russell, straightened out at long last by joining Alcoholics Anonymous, gets her second chance. Joel McCrea has signed this talented gal, whose highly publicized booze bouts in the past almost washed her career down the drain, for the leading lady role in his next movie, an as-yet-untitled Western.

Marilyn Monroe, always the trailblazer, is at it again. The gal who defied all conventions by using a nude calendar pose as her first step to Hollywood stardom is now the highest paid actress in town. She demanded and will receive from producer Harold Mirisch as her salary for co-starring with Tony Curtis and Jack Lemmon in "Some Like It Hot" 15 percent of every buck paid at every theatre in the world where the picture is shown. The most any star has received to date is 10 percent.

EVEN THE KING, Clark Gable, hasn't been able to pin Paramount down to more than 10 percent for his next picture, "But Not for Me." Matter of fact, the figure they promised Gable is almost too strong for the budget, considering the dwindling receipts at boxoffices 'cross-country, so that producers Bill Perlberg and George Seaton are on the verge of telling Gable it's But Not for Them — and calling the whole thing off!

Dieting (Zsa Zsa Gabor's definition): The penalty for exceeding the feed limit.

IT'S FOLK - MEETING time for the younger Crosby set. Starlet June Blair introduced Lindsay Crosby to her parents ("Mom and dad," said June. "I want you to meet my feller, Linseed.") — and Tropicana chorine Sandra Drummond introduced Philip to hers.

Although Phil shouldered all notions of marriage aside by assiding that all he's interested in right now is winning his letter in football at Washington State!

DOTTY HARMONY, another Trop cutie, hasn't heard from her old beau Elvis Presley lately so she's switched to Tommy Sands... The still very-much-overweight Judy Garland went 'way over the rainbow by promising the Coconut Grove management she would shed at least 20 pounds before her July 23 opening at the glittery. She'll never make it at this late date.

SAD, STRANGE news for Hollywood — that "The Key" is a boxoffice flop all over the country. Why? It's not that bad. Besides, with Bill Holden and Sophia Loren making with the marquee magic, it should be hitting pay dirt — but apparently THEY aren't and it ain't!

Paddy Chayevsky had some nasty things to tell the European press about Hollywood: what a non-creative, horrible, assembly-line place it is to work, etc. He neglected to add that the box-office returns on his first fovie, "The Goddess," are just as dreary and depressing as the script he wrote for it.

CHANNEL CHATTER — Ty Hardin went out immediately after signing as star of Warner-TV's Cheyenne series and plunked down $40,000 for a new home. Ty is "replacing" Cline Walker, who still refuses to return to work till his demands for more dough are met, but the Warner Bros. are leaving the door open by giving Ty the name of another character and reserving "Cheyenne" for Walker.

George Liberace has tossed off the "silent blanket" under which he worked when he was backstopping his brother Lee's shows as orchestra leader. George opened last Friday (July 11) at the Largo on the Sunset Strip, starting in his own show, singing and kicking up in a rock-'n'-roll number that must've had Elvis spinning-'n'-swivellin' in his GIs.

ED SULLIVAN spurned the script submitted to him, based on his own life story, by Warner Bros. (they also filmed Liberace's life story, remember?) Explained Ed: "It made me look like Jack Armstrong, the All-American Boy. It wasn't ME!"

Big Reason for that blowup between Milton Berle and the Louis Prima - Keely Smith team, previously pencilled in for some very close harmony on Uncle Miltie's new NBC nip-ups, was Berle's stubborn insistence on originating the show in New York. Louis and Keely claimed they can't — and WON'T — work regularly from any spot but Smogville-on-the-Pacific.

MEANWHILE, KRAFT, Berle's bankroller, is putting over the Prima-Smith bow-out. And, if Miltie isn't careful, he may find himself holding the short end of the contractual straw.

Sullivan and Berle are both summering in Las Vegas. Sullivan is billed at the Desert Inn as "America's Top TV Personality." Berle is billed at El Rancho Vegas as "Mr. Television."

ADD FEUDS: Oscar Levant and George Jessel. Georgie emceed the opening of the new Stardust in Las Vegas and told the star-studded audience exactly what he thinks of Oscar, and what he said isn't fit to be quoted in a family newspaper. We're all waiting to see how Oscar gets back at America's Toastmaster General on his own show.

Dinah Shore snagged Nanette Fabray for a minimum of six Chevy Show guests next season, which should help the Shore Trendex no end...

Vagrant Boxer Seeks Return To His Family

A vagrant boxer is pining for his family as he paces his cell at the Palm Springs Animal Shelter.

Humane officers said the sad-eyed canine was "booked" into the shelter after he was found running loose on South Palm Canyon Drive without a collar or license.

PALM SPRINGS Animal Protective League officials said the husky male boxer "apparently misses his family and expressed the hope that the dog would be called for soon."

The shelter also has four dogs ready for adoption by desert area families.

DOGS NOW AVAILABLE include a black and white collie named Cinder, whose family can no longer care for her; a frisky, black and white male puppy of mixed parentage, and a young, wire-haired female, likewise of questionable ancestry.

Visiting hours at the East Ramon Road shelter are from 8 to 9 a. m. and from 3 to 5 p. m. daily, including Sunday.

The care of a 10-cow herd consumes an average of 129 man-hours a year, according to a Department of Agriculture study.

County Officials May Inspect Small Tracts

County officials have been authorized to inspect small tract improvements completed by lessees on Federal Government Land in Riverside County areas, the federal Bureau of Land Management announced today.

Directed by County Building Director C. G. Bixel, the inspections will be made under a co-operative agreement with the Riverside County Planning Commission, effective July 15.

THE PROCEDURE is designed to expedite the bureau's small tract program in transferring lands to private ownership.

Small tract lessees within inspection areas, who have completed the necessary improvements, should obtain purchase applications from the Los Angeles Land Office of the Bureau of Land Management.

APPLICATION FOR inspection of improvements should be made at the nearest county building inspector's office. In the desert area, these offices are located at:

Palm Desert, 73-965 Highway 111; Desert Hot Springs, 11-709 Palm Drive; Idyllwild, Idyllwild Highway at Pinecrest.

New 1958 Spray Program for Citrus Available

A revised spray program giving the best information now available for the control of citrus pests has just been published.

This 1958 edition lists the recommended pest control materials for each pest. It also shows the dosage and best timing for the use of each material.

According to Marvin P. Miller, University of California farm advisor, copies are available in Riverside at Room 7, Post Office Building, or by telephoning Overland 3-6491. In Indio, copies are available at 46-269 Oasis or by telephoning Diamond 7-3671.

Horse Blood Donor

URBANA, Ill. — (UPI) — One of the champion blood donors in Illinois is Dolly, a horse. She has already donated 264 gallons of blood to various school and government laboratories and hospitals. The 24-year-old gray mare lives at the University of Illinois veterinary research farm. Dolly's contributions since 1947 have totaled eight liters a month for a grand total of eight barrels.

Educational Travel

MONTPELIER, Vt. — (UPI) — Motor vehicle and education department statistics show Vermont school buses travel 4,062,023 miles a year in the transportation of 23,012 children to and from their daily classes.

'Our First Man in Space'

Space Expert Tells Dramatic Story Of a Trip That Will Change Mankind

(One of these days—and no one can be sure just how soon—the United States will send its first man into space. This is the first chapter in a five-part account of just what sort of a man this country's first space explorer will be, how he is being prepared—as you read this—for his journey, how he will get into space, the purpose of the "trip," and how, if all goes well, he will return to earth. The astounding part of this account is that everything reported is possible TODAY, scientifically proved and tested. All that remains is selection of the man—and the moment.)

(The author, Martin Caidin, is one of the nation's leading authorities and writers on guided missiles, rockets, space science and aviation. His 1957 book "Vanguard" was the first to give a detailed account of America's first man-made satellite. His recent work "Countdown for Tomorrow" (E. P. Dutton) gave the inside story of earth satellites, and the race between American and Soviet science.)

By MARTIN CAIDIN
(Written for United Press International. Copyright 1958 by UPI)

Jim Randall sits tensely in the cockpit. The moment has come. In a matter of minutes he will be America's first traveler in outer space.

"How did I get here?" he thinks. "What am I doing? Will I ever see this earth again?"

Jim Randall is a name I picked at random. This Jim Randall doesn't exist—and yet he does. He is a composite, a true composite, of the sort of man who will become, and very soon, America's first man in space.

HE IS A VETERAN of many demanding flights with experimental, tricky airplanes. Most important: he wants to make that flight, to accept all the dangers. And if we are to be successful in our critical war for outer space, he must make that flight soon.

Our second enemy is just as real. The race to put the first man in space is vital because of the stakes involved. The nation which first establishes a capability of manned space flight will have a tremendous military advantage over the rest of the world.

Thousands of scientists and engineers in the United States are at this moment preparing for "Jim Randall's" epochal flight. When his moment does come, he'll be the right man for the job. He'll be prepared.

BEFORE WE SEND our "Columbus of space" on his historic journey, let's examine briefly, the challenges he—and the brilliant men who paved the way for his take-off—faces.

There are two major enemies. One is the simple, basic danger of this first flight, the danger that in a split second the efforts of years could be destroyed, and our first spaceman killed.

The second enemy is time. It is the knowledge that Russian scientists are in a crash program to send a spaceman out of this world before we do.

WHAT OF THE first enemy? The initial thrust of man away from his home planet into space will be a harrowing journey. From the first second of flight the pilot will be subject at every moment to catastrophe.

He will be punished by his rocket launching; from brutal gravity conditions he will be thrust into total weightlessness. His fuel tanks may explode to consume him in fiery death.

ONCE IN ORBIT his controls may not function, and perhaps he will be marooned in vacuum, to die slowly from lack of food, water and air.

His ship may be struck by a hurtling meteor, and he may die horribly as air and body fluids explode outward. If his return to atmosphere is not perfect, he may be crushed by deceleration forces. Too swift a return may incinerate him from friction with the thickening air.

THESE DANGERS, and many more, must be overcome by a single pilot. A man who is physically perfect, whose nerves are sound.

This is the man I am calling Jim Randall. He was selected from the ranks of Air Force test pilots. He is about 28 or 29 years old, with thousands of hours flying experience in jets and rocket aircraft. He is a capable mathematician, an expert navigator.

THE LOGICAL choice for this program is the North American many weaknesses; it is barely capable of modifying its course in flight. Defenses are being created to reduce its effectiveness. It is a powerful weapon, but it will never replace manned strategic weapons.

We need manned spaceships, manned satellites, manned space weapons. We need them desperately if we are to continue our present superiority in strategic striking power over the Soviet Union.

RUSSIAN SCIENTISTS are determined to wrest from us the advantages we now enjoy with our strategic range bombers. They can do this only with a successful manned space program.

Actually, there's little problem in sending a man into space. "We can put a man into space any time we want to," one scientist told me. "There's no problem with the rockets we have today in firing a man into orbit at 18,000 miles per hour. The trick is to bring him back—alive."

X-15, a rocket powered research airplane. Designed to fly faster than 4,000 MPH the X-15 can be mated to the giant Navaho rocket booster.

This combination could send the X-15 to more than 200 miles above the earth, into orbit at 18,000 MPH. More important, it can bring its pilot back safely.

ARPA (ADVANCED Research Projects Agency) have given the Air Force the primary responsibility for the first manned flight into space. The Air Force needs desperately to accomplish this mission in the shortest time possible.

It has several vital manned space projects under way. In their success lies the key to future military superiority. There is MISS, the beginning of manned space stations. There is DYNASOAR (for dynamic soaring) which calls for 16,000 MPH manned bombers which plunge from space to "skip" across the atmosphere at hypersonic speeds.

There are other, highly secret projects. But they all wait for the success of the most critical flight ever made—the launching of the first man into space.

(Next: Jim Randall — Spaceman.)

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Roberts have gone to Vancouver Island, B. C., for two months. Their three sons, plus two dogs were also with them. They anticipate returning home with more logs, as puppies are expected during their northern vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hale have been in and out of the desert the past few weeks. They have a home in Balboa and will spend the major portion of the summer there and a new home in the process of building brings them down quite often for a general "look-see."

Miss Betty Crockett, recreation director of Shadow Mountain Club, has taken off to spend the next two weeks camping in Yosemite Valley. Pete Pence will watch over the pool while she is away.

Dr. James Oliver and guests, the Tony Whans and guests, Jerry Malones, Milt Pages, Earl Spicers, Mrs. Edwina Warren and party, Jean Hanousek Butts and Marie Kuehner were seen dining and dancing under the stars at Shadow Mountain Club last Saturday night.

Mrs. Jean Hanousek Butts sprained an ankle yesterday and will have to have it put in a cast. She has closed the Lulu Belle poolside shop and leaves for Catalina within a day or so.

Mrs. Katherine Gordon, who heads up the play-reading committee for the Palm Desert Players, is enthusiastic about the winter activities of this group. The opening performance will take place the first part of October.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Sponberg departed Sunday for an extensive motor trip through the Middle West, with some time spent cruising on one or two of the Great Lakes. They will be away until the last of this month.

Mrs. Jessie Hill writes from Florence, Italy, that she is having a wonderful trip and particularly likes Italy. She will be away until early fall.

Mrs. Belle Keightley sails to Hawaii this week for her first trip to the Islands. She will be away several weeks.

The Christian Youth Fellowship ended its first year with a swimming party and picnic supper at the Villa last Sunday. Officers in this group are Miss Priscilla James, moderator; Butch Mathers, vice moderator; Miss Pat Moser, secretary, and Cathy Malone, treasurer. Several of these young people will attend the High School Church camp at Lake Big Bear, beginning Aug. 16.

Paul Stillman is in the California Lutheran Hospital. He went in for surgery and is improving every day.

Mrs. George (Pat) Anderson and Mrs. Martha Hughes have been having a wonderful vacation at the Steadman Ranch, near Estes Park, Colo. They are now on their way to Mrs. Hughes' home in Richmond, Va., then Florida, New York City and back to San Francisco in August.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Oshier opened their Sun Lodge for this past weekend. Their house guests were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur O. Carlson of San Francisco. Mr. Carlson is the president of the Charles R. Barry Co. in the northern city.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Worcester were in the desert for a few days last week, prior to their departure for Europe. They expect to be gone two months. They left Los Angeles Friday, July 11.

Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Steele have gone to Idyllwild for two weeks. Mrs. Steele will spend the entire time there but Mr. Steele will spend his usual two days in Los Angeles and one day here in the desert.

Mrs. Eleanor Germeaux spent last week at the Mission Inn in Riverside. She will be in and out of the desert this summer, but will spend much time in her Highland House home.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Hunter have gone to San Francisco for the month of July. They make their home in Holiday Lodge in the northern city. Mrs. Hunter spends quite a bit of this vacation with her sister who resides in Mill Valley.

Saturday night was Shadow Mountain Club's barbecue and dance around the pool. A delicious steak dinner was put on by Bob Keedy, with help from many eager beavers who like to cook.

Among the members and guests present were Mrs. Pauline Findeisen, the Francis Pierces, John Vales, Charles Cadys, E. J. Oshiers, Arthur Carlsons, George Wallins, John Moons, Harry Cannons, R. J. Beck, Harry Henkels, Hal Kapps, Dick Kites, John Kuehners, Wayne Neelds, Vernon Browns, Jack Quensels, Ross Pattons, N. C. Ruffs, Dr. and Mrs. P. W. Seals, the Stephen Chases, Tom Foxes, Paul Heinleys, A. T. Murrays, L. C. Lewis, Clarence Bosworths, Murray Kesslers, Frank Berensons, Mildred Garrison, Helen Furer, Bonnie Grafman and her fiancée, Marvin Scott, Jewel Neal, Jon Martin, William Dods, Don Huntons and many more.

Miss Dorothy Philp and her mother, Mrs. William R. Philp have purchased a home on Portola Drive and will be moved in very soon. These two ladies are the mother and sister of Mrs. Earle Macartner. Miss Philp is the new teller in the Bank of America.

Word from Forrest Bower says that Mrs. Bower (Eunice) is in the UCLA hospital in Los Angeles, where she has undergone surgery but is getting along very well.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kite, Sr., have leased a home in Idyllwild for the summer. They will come down at least once a week to pick up some mail and give the garden some water.

The Tennis Round Robin on Thursday nights and movies on Friday nights at Shadow Mountain Club are proving popular diversion for those who stay at home this summer.

Mrs. June Crocker has returned from Hawaii where she spent several weeks. She was in the desert for one day only and is now on her way to Chicago, Detroit and New York.

Ray Stager, manager of Shadow Mountain Club, flew to Florida recently to see his father who is quite ill. He could only stay a few days, unfortunately, as Mr. Stager, Sr., is seriously ill.

Mrs. Corine Cook, who always has a smile for everyone that goes into the postoffice, will be away on vacation until the July 15. Rita Reeder is taking Corine's "window" until she returns.

The Frank Bireleys opened their Sun Lodge for the weekend. With them are Bill and Christine, and two of their friends. Mr. Bireley's sister, Mildred Garrison is also here and Dr. Garrison will return for another few days.

First Summer Dance Set by Friday Niteers

First summer dance for the year highlights a "cool" calendar of events for the Palm Springs Youth Center during the week of July 14 through 19. Dance time is 8 p.m., Friday, for high school and junior high school Friday Niteers.

PAT DEBELLIS and his orchestra will provide the music for the first dance in a summer series made possible by a Desert Circus contribution to the Junior Coordinating Council.

The dance is a joint program of the Youth Center and City Park and Recreation Department.

This week's activities begin at 8 p.m., Tuesday, with a meeting of the Junior Coordinating Council. Church youth groups, school organizations and youth clubs were invited to send representatives.

THE BRIDGE CLASS meets at 7:30 p.m., Tuesday and Thursday.

Open daily from 1 p.m. to 10 p.m., the Youth Center offers such free recreational activities as pool, ping pong, and all kinds of table games, television, a record player, a juke box and various other features.

Youngsters seeking relief from the heat and summer recreation are invited to enjoy the facilities of the refrigeration-cooled Youth Center.

Mrs. Larrison Is Active in Fiesta Club Work

W. Larrison, active in the Cathedral City Woman's Club and courtesy chairman of the De Anza District of Federated Women's Clubs, is vice president of the Idyllwild Institute-Fiesta Club and is now in Idyllwild in preparation for the fifth annual Idyllwild Institute-Fiesta scheduled for July 20 to Aug. 2.

Information and reservations may be secured from Mrs. Larrison at Box 24, Idyllwild.

The University of Illinois Agriculture College advises buying herd bulls on the basis of good performance records. The college says this will greatly improve chances of getting offspring that will perform well.

NORTH PALM SPRINGS

By ORPHA GEIER

As is usual at this season things are pretty quiet around North Palm Springs. A number of people are on vacation, and those of us who remain through the summer are real busy taking it easy and trying to keep cool, with impromptu swimming parties, neighborhood barbecues and television sessions.

Jimmie McCance is vacationing in Rosemead at the home of his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Rose.

William "Blackie" and Marion Disney were out from San Bernardino for the holiday weekend visiting old friends and enjoying the pools.

Banning, Palm Springs and Riverside were represented at a managers meeting of Dill Lumber Co. held at Sid and Ann's Cafe last week, where they will continue with luncheon meetings once each month.

Marvin Moon, who is on leave from Presidio, accompanied his aunt, Frosty Briggs on a recent trip to Texas and is visiting here with the Briggs family before returning to duty.

Ruth Donaghue and children spent the holiday weekend at the home of her parents in Gardena. Her sister, Miss Rita Penrod came back to the desert with her for a two weeks visit.

Ed and Kay Hamm returned Monday evening after a month spent at Lake Tahoe. After a few days at their home here the Hammes will go to Costa Mesa where they expect to stay until the first part of September, except for occasional weekends here.

West Leads Nation in Sales Of New 1958 Mobile Homes

Western sales of new mobile homes and travel trailers registered a dollar-volume gain of 11 per cent for the first quarter of 1958 over the comparable period in 1957, according to Trailer Coach Association which represents the industry in the 11 western states.

Dollar-wise, the 1958 first quarter sales amounted to $22,347,507 as against $20,127,598 for the like period of 1957.

California accounted for the greatest number of sales with a total of 4,342 units, a gain of 3.7 per cent over the like period in 1957 when 4,135 sales were made.

TRAVEL AND VACATION trailer units up to and including 25 feet in length accounted for 2,946 units or 49 per cent of total production for the initial quarter of 1958, compared to 2,644 units for the first quarter of 1957, a gain of 11 per cent.

It is estimated that 52.8 per cent of all trailer sales, representing a dollar volume of $11,684,064, were made in Southern California and 20.3 per cent representing $4,143,022 were made in Northern California.

The remaining sales were distributed throughout the other western states, chiefly to Arizona, Oregon and Washington and to areas outside the West.

2 Village Youths Selected to Take Russian Courses

Two graduates of Palm Springs High School have been selected for an intensive year-long course of instruction in Russian at the U. S. Army language school in Monterey, under the army's stepped-up program for overcoming a critical shortage of skilled linguists.

They are Pvt. Douglas Durand Waldron, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Waldron, Shadow Hills Ranch, and Pvt. Robert M. Havemann, son of Dr. and Mrs. M. S. Havemann, 2392 Belding Drive.

Waldron was graduated from high school in 1952, and from Occidental College in Los Angeles in 1956, while Havemann was a high school graduate in 1953, and ended school at the University of Redlands in 1958.

Upon completing their present courses of study, the two youths will be prepared to act as translators or interpreters, able to converse freely in Russian as well as to read and write the language.

Tips for A Safe Vacation

By JAMES KLOCKENKEMPER
United Press International

DETROIT — (UPI)—Taking the family on a motor trip this summer? Play it safe in preparing for the trip, as well as when you're on the road.

One automotive company offered these suggestions. Before leaving home, tell the local police when you're leaving and returning so they can make daily checks of your house.

Cancel milk and newspaper deliveries; a pile of papers on a front porch is a signal to the would-be burglar that you're away. Stop mail and store deliveries also.

Turn off all gas jets, including the gas for the hot water heater. Leave a few window shades up, so the house won't look so obviously unoccupied.

Another trick for warding off burglars: fix an automatic time switch to a couple of lights, set to come on each evening.

If your vacation is to be a long one, you might arrange to have the lawn mowed while you're away; and leave a trip schedule with a close friend or relative.

Remember to pack sun glasses, a flashlight with fresh batteries, and travel checks instead of cash.

Once on the road, don't try to set any endurance or speed records. You won't enjoy traveling, and you may get sleepy and cause an accident. Experts suggest that the driver shift his or her position every 15 minutes or so.

And make it a habit to pull over to the side of the road at scenic spots to give everyone a chance to stretch his legs. But when you do stop, make sure the car is completely off the highway. Don't park on a curve or at the crest of a hill.

Don't follow the car ahead too closely.

Teen Age Fatties Attend "Junior Maine Chance"

By GAY PAULEY
United Press Women's Editor

NEW YORK — Florida now boasts a "junior Maine Chance" for teen-age fatties.

The luxury spa is run by a 47-year-old businessman named Larry Paskow, who said the resort grew from necessity. His own daughter, Patricia, had been fat throughout childhood.

"Summer camp didn't help her any," said Paskow. "Patty's come home 10 pounds heavier each year. Finally my wife and I decided we'd look for a camp or health farm which catered to overweight teenagers. There wasn't one, so we opened our own."

Patricia, now 16, was one of 22 "fatties" who participated in the eight-week program on an experimental basis last summer.

"Every one of the girls, but one, went home 10, 15 and even more pounds slimmer," said Paskow during an interview here. "Patty's now a trim 126 pounds, down from 154. Of course, not all of that melted off in the eight weeks."

"The idea is to teach the youngsters proper eating habits, actually to re-train their food preferences, and hope they'll keep up the good work once they get home."

"All but one girl stuck it out last summer," said Paskow. "We had to send her home early. She would sneak away for an afternoon and gorge. After two or three such incidents, we knew for the morale of the others, she'd have to go."

Paskow's Harbor Island spa is located at Miami Beach. In winter, it caters to adults, who want to lose a few pounds.

Village P&BW Club Enjoys Poolside Party

Palm Springs Business and Professional Women's Club members cooled off at a Poolside Party at the home of Mrs. Audrey Barrett, 30-989 San Antonio Drive.

A delicious buffet dinner was served on the lanai, consisting of Hungarian goulash, beans, tossed green salad and pink lemonade. Games were played and prizes won, with Mrs. Barrett getting the most clothespins in a milk bottle. Betty Luce guessing the number of buttons in a jar.

The members also tried to form up to 100 words from the two words, "Palm Springs."

Those present were: Jean Blair, Frances LaRue, Leona Cray, Betty Luce, Annette Scrivner, June Travers, Jean Bourne, Helen Stary, Mary McGraw. Guests were Arvella Allred, second vice president of the Desert Club from Cathedral City, and Mrs. Peters, mother of Audrey Barrett.

Business women interested in the club may call the membership chairman, Betty Luce, at FA 4-2806, for further information.

Frankly, we don't expect you to take our word for it when we say the Swept-Wing 58 Dodge is unlike any car you have ever driven. We don't expect you to believe it rides smoother, corners better and handles easier just because we say so. You want more than claims. You want proof. You want to be shown, to be convinced. That's why we invite you to come in and Take the Wheel... Get the Swept-Wing feel. Take a '58 Dodge out on the road and compare it with any other car you have ever owned or driven. Is it everything we say it is? Does it actually ride smoother? Corner better? Handle easier? We'll leave the answers up to you. You be the judge. Just see and drive and compare the Swept-Wing 58 Dodge. That's all we ask.

Men Have Won Their Battle To Keep Wives Looking Sexy

By GAY PAULEY
UPI Women's Editor

NEW YORK (UPI) — The men have won the battle to keep their women looking sexy instead of sacky.

The de-curving silhouette of the gunnysack of last spring is dead.

In its place for fall we have easy-fitting clothes, with what the fashion industry calls fluid lines, which emphasize bosoms and legs. Skirts are shorter than they've been since flapper days, with some designers showing them barely covering the knee.

Who's responsible for the demise of the chemise?

Mostly the men, said the couture group of the New York Press Institute.

"And many women," it added. "It is clear that the grass roots protests from husbands and taxi drivers... have not gone unheeded," said the group in today's "watch for" roundup for fall.

It added that "baggy outlines, bizarre outrigger effects and maternal middies have been voted out by the 'shapes wish shape', definitely anatomy-conscious... 'The bosom and waistline, mourned as lost by many, to be visible and emphasized..."

The couture group, made up of 30 leading designers, yesterday began a weeklong series of fashion shows for 200 women's and fashion editors from the United States and Canada. The shows have been held semi-annually since 1941.

Although the accent once more is on curves, there are numerous variations on this theme; so many it'll be a confusing fall for the shopper.

TODAY'S SPORT PARADE

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press International

NEW YORK (UPI) — Fearless Fraley's facts and figures:
Sugar Ray Robinson, the word is now, will fight again—but not until next year because he made too much money in 1958, and most of the loot would go to Uncle Sam.

ROBINSON, AT a meeting with Truman Gibson, head of the International Boxing Club, said that he definitely would fight next year. He said he would like the winner of the Sept. 5 bout at Los Angeles between Carmen Basilio and Art Aragon.

There was a hint that one last big jackpot for defending the middleweight crown might be his last effort.

THERE IS A tremendous boom in golf course construction, the National Golf Foundation reports, with 45 new courses and additions opened since last October running the total of regulation courses now in play to 5,710.

There are 372 new courses under construction and 916 in the planning stage. Meanwhile, there is a boom in the par — three courses with 236 in play and 40 under construction.

GROWTH THERE is due to the smaller area required (five acres and up) plus lower construction costs, quicker playing time and the fact that they can be lighted for night play. For those who like to putter around, the first miniature golf championship will be held at Asbury Park, N. J., Sept. 6-7.

CHEAPER BY THE dozen or the dollar ain't worth nowhere near what it used to be: There was a great furor back in 1938 when Seabiscuit became the first horse to win more than $400,000. That was only 20 years ago but at the moment there are 33 horses which have won more money and three of them — Nashua, Round Table and Citation—are millionaires.

VOTING IS BEING conducted by the boxing press in the annual election for candidates to boxing's Hall of Fame.

Just in case you're interested, the choices of old Fearless are: Johnny Dundee, Tony Zale, Lew Tendler, Billy Petrolle, Marcel Cerdan, Georges Carpentier, Jimmy Braddock, Jersey Joe Walcott, Lew Ambers and Fidel Labarba.

MARILYN SMITH, one of the top players in the Ladies Professional Golf Association, thinks that the feminine par — busters have a long way to go.

"We're just at about the point where the men were in 1932 or 1933," she asserts. "People just haven't gotten used to the idea of a girl pros yet." They would, if they'd see 'em hit that ball.

RALPH KERCHVAL, the former Kentucky All-American and pro grid star who was one of the finest punters these tired old eyes ever saw, has resigned as manager of Alfred G. Vanderbilt's Sagamore Farm near Pimlico where he raised Native Dancers. Kerchval is going into the horse breeding business at the late Col. E. R. Bradley's Idle Hour Farm.

There hasn't been much fuss this year about the home run hitters stand against Babe Ruth's record 60 pace of 1927. So, just to start the ball rolling, when Boston's Jackie Jensen hit his 26th homer in the Red Sox's 78th game he was just one game behind the mighty Bambino's schedule.

Meaning that the record is safe for another year because baseball men say that nobody will ever match Ruth's 17 in September.

Dodgers Plan Appeal of Ruling

LOS ANGELES — (UPI) — Any hopes the Dodgers had of leaving the Coliseum for their own park next year were dashed today as the club prepared to appeal a judge's ruling that the Chavez Ravine contract with the city was invalid.

Dodger president Walter F. O'Malley indicated he expected to play the entire 1959 season in the huge bowl with its 250-foot left field foul line. But he said right field might be revamped so that left-handed hitters like Duke Snider won't lose all chances of getting an occasional home run.

Superior Judge Arnold Praeger ruling that the Dodgers' contract with the city was not valid was being studied today by attorneys for the baseball club and the city.

Little Leaguers To Practice Here

Banning and Beaumont teams will use the Polo Grounds for practice sessions prior to play-offs from 6:30 to 8 p.m., Wednesday, causing a cancellation of the Desert Softball League play that night. City Recreation Director Howard Haddock announced today.

Jr. Police Win Little League Title

Boys Club Finishes In Second

The first and second place Junior Police and Boys Club finished the regular Little League season at the Polo Grounds last night by registering smashing victories over the third and fourth place Cameron Stars and Hathaway Buick Braves.

Led by a record 20 hits the Police shut out the Braves 15-0 and the Boys Club rolled up a 14-1 win over the Stars.

EVERY SINGLE one of the starting lineup scored for the Police and almost everyone hit safely. They scored six times in the second inning, once in the third, got seven more in the fourth and tallied once in the fifth.

The big blow of the game was a bases empty home run by Jerry Olivera. There were also four doubles by Ernie Reyes, Mike Lewis, Eel James, and Robert Teitelbaum.

IN THE SECOND game the Boys Club managed to get only six hits off two Cameron Stars pitchers, but rolled up almost as big a score as did the Police on 11 unearned runs. The runs came through walks and a large number of Star errors.

The Clubbes scored seven runs in the first and were never in trouble although Paul Payne did single and score for the Stars in the second. Payne also doubled but only one other Star player, Mark Fitzgerald, got a hit.

Lloyd Chaisson was the leading hitter for the winners, getting two singles.

ON SUNDAY NIGHT after the Police beat the Boys Club 6-3, the Cameron Stars smashed the Hathaway-Buick Braves 11-4.

The games were rescheduled for Sunday because of the Little League District Playoffs here next Friday night.

Led by Ernie Reyes' three doubles the Police were never really in trouble despite the flops of the games. Reyes scored each time after doubling and singlehandedly provided the winning margins.

A DOUBLE BY JERRY Olivera and two singles by Mickey Morrison also helped pitcher Eel James to win the game. James put down the second place Clubbes on five hits although one of these was a homer by Dave Starich.

In the second game the Cameron Stars had one of their best nights as they got 11 hits and scored 11 times to easily rout the Hathaway-Buick Braves.

THE STARS JUMPED on Brave pitching for five runs in the first inning and then got four more in the second in a game called at the end of five frames.

Johnny Aitchison, Dennis Watworth and Paul Payne all doubled in the victory while Cliff Thalis' two run single was the big blow for the losers.

The Braves scored three in the third in their biggest inning.

Giants Assured Of New Home

SAN FRANCISCO — (UPI) — The San Francisco Giants got past the final barrier in their fight for a home Monday when the Board of Supervisors voted to build a new stadium at Candlestick Point.

By a vote of 8-2, the supervisors gave their approval to all the legislation necessary to get construction underway, including an okay of leases and of a five-million-dollar city bond issue for buying the Candlestick Point property.

When finished, the new stadium will be approximately five miles from the center of town and will seat at least 45,000 persons, 22,000 more than Seals Stadium, where the Giants now play.

Perry Jones Isn't Worried About Russians in Tennis

By HAL WOOD
United Press International
SAN FRANCISCO — (UPI) — Perry Jones, Captain of the U. S. Davis Cup team, isn't worried about what Russia will do in international tennis competition—once the Russians develop the game.

But, like the men heading the track and field department of American sports, Jones apparently has been thinking about the Russian system enough to have some thoughts on the subject.

"I GUESS THEY are going to go into tennis in a big way," the Los Angeles tennis star-developer said, "Jack Kramer was telling me about his visit over there."

"They had some plans for building tennis courts—so they did

Miteff Wants To Take on Any Heavyweight

OAKLAND — (UPI) — Roughhouse Alex Miteff, fresh from a four-fifteen 10-round victory over Reuben Vargas, asked today to take on "any heavy weight in the world."

The Argentine hook artist, ranked number 6 in the heavyweight division, won a unanimous decision over Vargas Monday night in a battle that got so rough that referee Tony Bosnich once stopped it to let Vargas recuperate.

"I'll fight anybody in the world that my manager can get," said Miteff after the battle.

"I hurt my hand in the first round when I socked him on the chin. That slowed me down."

Jones All Stars will meet the Carter All Stars in Old Man's Softball League play at the Rodeo Grounds tonight. Game time will be 8 p.m.

EXCELLENT FISHING was reported today by a group of Villagers who went down to Guaymas, Sonora, Mexico, last week, and they brought pictorial proof. Top photo, left, Ben Bronstein shows off his catch of two sailfish, and top right, Madge Libott is shown with her two sailfish. Bottom photo shows, left to right, Mrs. Libott; Julian Stiff, who caught one marlin; Manuel Hoffman;

Bert Dorothy, who is 79 years of age and caught one sailfish, and Bronstein. Robert White caught a sailfish and marlin, and others in the party were Robert Schmidt, Mrs. Dorothy, Maury Libott, Mrs. Ruth White and son. The group stayed at Playa de Cortez, and went fishing with Tommy Jamison, sports fishing director for Guaymas.

Tommy Bolt Goes 'On Trial'

HAVERTOWN, Pa. (UPI) — U. S. Open golf champion Tommy Bolt goes "on trial" today before his own profession, facing possible suspension from tournament play because of his behavior.

Bolt's predicament, as he faced the wrath of the long-suffering Professional Golf Association executive committee, hurled into the background Thursday's opening of the annual PGA tournament.

The status of the man known as "Thunder," whose most recent explosions had drawn him a $500 fine, was to be decided today at a command appearance before the governing body of his own association.

Yankees Point to Winning AL Pennant by 20 Games

By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press International

The New York Yankees aren't looking to coast into the World Series, they're aiming to fly in by a record 20-game margin.

They didn't decide on that figure arbitrarily, either. If they can make it, they will shatter their own record of 19½ games by which they won the 1936 American League pennant.

THIS BIT OF SIDE-play is perfectly all right with Casey Stengel, who wouldn't mind being remembered as the Yankee manager who captured a pennant by the biggest margin in their history. Right now, the distinction belongs to Joe McCarthy, who led the 1936 Yankees.

The runaway Yankees increased their lead to 13 games — largest margin of the season — with a 5-0 victory over the Chicago White Sox Monday night.

EX-YANKEE JACK Urban halted Kansas City's six-game losing streak when he shut out Washington, 4-0, on four hits for his seventh triumph of the year.

Bob Boyd's eighth-inning homer broke up a pitching duel between Skinny Brown and Herb Moford and led the Baltimore Orioles to a 2-1 win over the Detroit Tigers.

The Boston Red Sox snapped a three-game losing streak by defeating the Cleveland Indians, 4-3, in 10 innings. Southpaw Don Mossi walked in the winning run by giving up a base on balls to pinch hitter Ted Lepcio with the bases full.

MILWAUKEE, WHICH relinquished the National League lead Sunday recaptured it from San Francisco by drubbing the Giants 12-3, behind Lew Burdette's five-hit pitching.

Wes Covington and Johnny Logan paced the Braves' 16-hit attack, the bulk of which was borne by loser Red Worthington.

LITTLE DON ZIMMER cracked out two home runs as the Los Angeles Dodgers made it four in a row over the Cincinnati Redlegs with an 8-5 decision. Zimmer drove in four runs with his two homers while Charlie Neal contributed a three-run homer and Steve Bilko connected with the bases empty.

Walt Moyn's two-run double in the 11th inning enabled the Chicago Cubs to come from behind and earn an 11-10 victory over the Philadelphia Phillies.

Pittsburgh and St. Louis were idle.

Sidewinders Win Minor Loop Title

First annual Minor League program co-sponsored by the City of Palm Springs Park and Recreation Department and the Little League Commission came to a successful conclusion Friday evening, with the players now being given a reward of two more games at the Polo Grounds.

This will be the first time the youngsters from a 12 will have played at the main baseball field, with games during the season having been played at the Rodeo Grounds diamond.

LEAGUE CHAMPIONS are the Sidewinders with a perfect 9-0 record. In second place are the Dodgers with five wins and four losses; taking third with the Red Sox with 4-5, and in the cellar are the Yankees with 1-8.

The Sidewinders will play the Red Sox at the Polo Grounds to night at 7 p.m., with the softball game to follow. On Wednesday evening at 8 p.m. the Yankees will play the Dodgers, with the softball game that night having been cancelled.

Giants, C.V.C.A. Both to Play Away Tonight

Both Desert County Polo League games will be played out of town today, with the Coachella Valley Contractors Association team going to Beaumont, and the Palm Springs Giants traveling to Banning.

The game with Banning was originally scheduled here, but was transferred to enable the Minor League to play at the Polo Grounds tonight.

Both games will start at 6 p.m.

Colonel Hood Wins Senior Golf Tourney Title

Colonel L. F. Hood has won the Senior Golf Championship of the U. S. Army in Okinawa, according to word received here by his mother, Mrs. Ona Hood, 413 North Calle Encina.

He will now compete in Japan for the next 10 days against Army contestants from Okinawa, Japan and Korea.

His mother has lived in Palm Springs for several years, and this fall his son, Bill Hood, will enter Palm Springs High School.

Rodgers Leads PCL Batters

SAN FRANCISCO — (UPI) — Andre Rodgers of Phoenix, who is property of the red-hot San Francisco Giants, is also a bit torrid himself.

Figures released by William Weiss, Pacific Coast League statistician, showed today that in games through Sunday Rodgers was clutching the ball at a .421 clip to lead the league's hitters.

Rodgers was followed by Earl Averill of San Diego, who had 115 hits and a .353 bat mark.

Costa Credits Win to Style

NEW YORK — (UPI) — Featherweight Carmelo Costa today credited his easier victory over Al Tisi in their return bout to "my change in style."

Costa of Brooklyn, a ranking contender before his hitch in the Army, won a more emphatic unanimous 10-round decision over Tisi of New York Monday night in their TV fight at St. Nicholas Arena than he did on March 9, 1954.

By Ordinance No. 311 of Riverside County this locality is required to have everyone wishing to burn in an incinerator, or any other burning, to apply for a burning permit. The policy of the Forestry Service is to lead by rules and regulations rather than by pushing and pulling, when a little regulation, such as a permit for burning, will make it easier and give quicker service for all concerned.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilburn Smith of Glendale, were weekend guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey D. Wallace.

Miss Anita Ross remained in Riverside to visit with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. James Ross, Sr., for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. William Heine and son, Larry, of Clarksville, Iowa, and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Shultz, from Greene, Iowa, are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Dovey.

A week ago, Mr. and Mrs. H. I. Sloper motored into Long Beach for a few days and on their return home their niece, Miss Lois Erskine, came with them for a visit.

Miss Bonnie Adams was recently married at her mother's home, near Norco. She is now Mrs. Dean Cencush, and lives at Corona. Miss Valletta Hunt and Richard D. Blythe were among the guests.

Visiting with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Whitmore, are two brothers, Robert and Bruce Campbell. Their parents are touring Europe, and one other brother is attending the Black - Fox Military School. Meanwhile the two boys are making good use of the swimming pool and enjoying life on the desert.

Wednesday guests with Mr. and Mrs. John Papp and Joanne were Mr. and Mrs. Sandy Brod and three children, Lynn, Barry and Kenneth. Sunday guests of the Papps were his brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Papp, from Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Brackman of Vista, were visitors with Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Welcome, Monday. Their three children, Stephen, Paul and Lynn, who had spent a week at their grandparents home, left with their parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil McCormick, their ten-year-old daughter, Vicky, and three-month-old son, James Neil, and friends, Miss Sheila Kuykendahl, all of Long Beach, are spending a couple of weeks at their desert residence. Mr. McCormick is an operator in the second largest company in the United States that prints medical and surgical records. His hobby is a very interesting one, collecting marine life, both fish and animals, and a recent catch was an albino seahorse, a very rare animal. These fish and animals are kept in tanks of various sizes, having as near a natural habitat as possible. Sunset Magazine is featuring an article and pictures of Mr. McCormick and a partner, and their hobby.

Palm Valley
Traditional picnicking and camping out made the holiday most enjoyable to all in the Palm Valley Park.

A poolside complimentary breakfast of hot cakes and waffles started a particularly enjoyable day with the usual "bang." Everyone in the park attended the "cool pool" event.

ROSS MARTIN is now on his way to Clear Lake for his vacation. He had been enjoying his grandson, Jimmy, the two weeks previous to their departure and will return Jimmy to his folks on his way.

Joan and George Jackson entertained guests from Montebello Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Carter and George. As their guests are "rock hounds," they remarked it was surely easy to entertain them here on the desert.

BILL AULTHOUSER recently spent the weekend in Los Angeles with long time friends of his.

Herkey Creek has its quota of Palm Valley Trailer residents this summer with the Wilsons, the Knutsons and the Murphys all either living there or camping weekends.

Four Building Permits Issued In Palm Desert

"Duke Snider, Crazylegs and me..."

"ALL THREE OF US are heroes now, to the kids who have joined our club!

"You see, this is neighborhood 'headquarters' for the 76 Sports Club. The youngsters stop in here to join up. Then every two weeks I give them a new 76 Sports Book. The sports stars do the rest.

"The kids watch Elroy 'Crazylegs' Hirsch and his famous guests on the 76 Sports Club TV show. They flock to our local sports clinics at schools and playgrounds. And they really work on the sports tips that athletes demonstrate for them at those sessions, on the television program and in the books.

"(You ought to see them practicing the 'Fine Points of Batting' that Duke Snider wrote about!)

"How is the idea going over? Well, so far, Union Oil dealers like me have given out more than eight million copies of the 76 Sports Books... and we're just getting started.

"Another thing that's great—parents stop in to say they appreciate what our 76 Sports Club is doing for the kids.

"By the way, parents and kids alike will have fun learning 'Fine Points of Tennis Strategy' from the newest 76 Sports Book, by Nancy Chaffee Kiner. Your youngster's free copy is waiting, at the nearest Union Oil station."
